“ Celebrating the life of our dear sister Barbara. We cherish the thoughts of her, Bob, Lisa and Anthony’s visit to see in in Wisconsin last year. We had such a wonderful reunion and made some lasting memories. We admire her long fight, and grateful that she is now at peace, although we miss her so much.

“ Barbara was the best person I have ever known. She was born to nurture. Long before she was a mother she was taking care of her younger siblings. Although I was year older, Barb was was a constant source of support for me from our earliest days as toddlers and throughout our lives. She was always my best friend. She was a great caregiver for our parents when they needed her. She will be missed by all who knew and loved her. You deserve to rest in peace my sweet sister.

“ Barbara was my sister in law. Even though I didn't get to see her often, I loved her and Bob. She will be missed. Comfort and peace.

“ Barbara, my sister-in-law, was married to my younger brother, Bob, and although we never spent much time together as we were separated by 2,100 miles on opposite sides of the nation, she was loved by all and appeared in every way to be the loving, nurturing wife and mother anyone would hope for. She will be missed as she goes to rest eternally with the Lord. I pray for peace and comfort for all her family and friends left behind as she goes to reap her final reward.
