“ Cheryl was a very giving, loving, strong willed woman I've ever had the pleasure of knowing .We have many years of memories as we grew up together, and also her being the best friend ever before being my sweet Sister in love . I'm going to miss our talks our stuff shrimp dinners , but I'll cherish all my wonderful memories from the horse ride that ended in him stepping on me 🤪 wasn't so funny then but can definitely laugh about it now after all these years of playing Bingo , thrift store shopping and just talking spending time together CHERYL was a very giving person there's been numerous times she would always pay for the person in front of her that didn't have enough money she wouldn't let them put stuff back She loved her family like no other her mom and dad and all her siblings and all her close family members and them grandkids are her world!! Cheryl would help anyone in need that's who she was the most loving person ever. She also loved her dogs and they are all gonna miss her too. Go rest in Paradise until I see you again , I love you more than you'll ever know
