

Connie Faye Terrell

March 17, 1960 - August 8, 2021

On August 08, 2021, Connie Faye Terrell left the world and found her place in heaven. For those that knew Connie, she was a bundle of energy and had a heart full of love. Connie was born on March 17, 1960, in Shelby, Ohio. To her parents Edward Sr. and Estelle Knapp. Connie spent her younger years in Ohio with her Brother Edward Jr and sisters Donna and June. Connie would often speak of her family camping trips and her first dog Trixy. Shortly after Connie graduated high school, she moved to St. Augustine, FL where she met her husband Steven Terrell Sr. Married on April 29, 1983. Connie and her husband stayed in St Augustine for the births of their two children, Megan, born June 15, 1983, and Steven Jr, Born August 7, 1985. Connie moved with her husband and children to Marion, Illinois in 1988. A few years after moving to Marion, Connie and Steve followed their passion for helping others and opened Live Oak Retirement Center. For the next 15 plus years, Connie was able to help countless elderly patients at their retirement center. Connie would also spend all of her free time playing with her children, gardening, and most of all living life to her fullest potential. In 2007 the next chapter of her life unfolded leading her and the family back to St Augustine, FL. Connie and Steve moved back to St Augustine to care for their aging parents. Over the passing years, their parents passed but, St Augustine remained home. Connie was a proud mother of her two children and was happy to see both married and begin their own adult lives. Connie was also a very proud grandmother of her granddaughter Caroline. Connie spent every available moment she could with her little best friend. Connie could be found almost anywhere with Caroline, from taking trips around the pond or to Goodwill. In closing, Connie leaves behind a loving husband, daughter, son, brother, two sisters, and multiple other family members and friends.
