

Cora Marie Biddulph

October 21, 1923 - January 25, 2021

Cora Marie Biddulph passed away January 25, 2021. Cora was born in Flint, Michigan on October 21, 1923. The youngest of three, Cora had an older sister and brother. Cora married Euclid Thibodeau in 1942 and welcomed four children with him. Cora went to work at Kresge's before going to work at Sears-Roebuck, where she completed night school and was employed for 25 years. They took vacations to Florida, and fell in love with St. Augustine. After Cora retired from Sears-Roebuck, they moved to St. Augustine in 1977. Cora began volunteering at Flagler Hospital in 1980 completing more than 20,500 hours of service as a volunteer and is recognized as a Life Member by the Auxiliary. Cora was an active volunteer at the Lightner Museum. Cora's husband Euclid passed away in 1987. In 1993, Cora married Arthur Biddulph. Arthur joined the Auxiliary the following year and volunteered until he passed away in 2001. For many years Cora was a faithful member of the Trinity Holy Folders and was an active traveler. She accompanied the Traveling Trinitarians on many wonderful expeditions; including a trip to Scotland and Ireland.

She is survived by her children, Pamela Milford, Marie Shaw, Jerry Thibodeau and Ralph Thibodeau, eight grandchildren, numerous great grandchildren and three great great grandchildren.

Funeral service will be held 1PM Tuesday with a visitation from 12 - 1PM prior to the service at Craig Funeral Home.

Comments

“ God rest the soul of one of the all time great "Holy Folders". Cora is an inspiration even now as a new saint around the throne. Because she is a part of our life, there will never be a good excuse to give up on life.
