

Henry R. Mangum III

December 3, 1948 - January 17, 2019

Henry R. "Hank" Mangum III, 70, of St. Augustine, Florida, passed away Thursday, January 17, 2019 at Flagler Hospital with his family by his side. He was born in Raleigh, NC on December 3, 1948, son of the late Lt. Col. Henry R. Mangum Jr. and Viola "Boe" Alston Mangum. He was a graduate of Sewanee Military Academy and a graduate of the University of North Carolina at Wilmington in 1972. Following a successful career as a financial controller, he retired from DuPont in 2001. After retirement, Hank loved finding bicycles at yard sales, fixing them up and donating to organizations or giving to needy families. For ten years, he was a tireless and selfless volunteer at SAFE Pet Rescue, fostering rescue dogs, transporting thousands of animals to safety from euthanasia, building fences, and helping the organization in many other ways. He was an avid reader, golfer, and had a passion for food. He was a kind and gentle person who always had a smile on his face. He is survived by his wife of 49 years, Zettie Carrier Mangum of the home; two sons, Hank Mangum (Susan) of Newburgh, Indiana and Cary Mangum (Emily) of Natchitoches, Louisiana; three grandsons, Andrew, Brent and William Mangum of Newburgh, two granddaughters, Callie and Maisie Mangum of Natchitoches, and two sisters, Laura Mangum Coleman of Hixson, Tennessee and Frances Mangum Hensel of North Ridgeville, Ohio. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be sent to SAFE Pet Rescue, P.O. Box 840215, Saint Augustine, FL 32080 or www.safe-pet-rescue-fl.com. A celebration of life will be held at a later date.

Comments

“ One of the best people I have stever know is gone. Not fair!
Gone too soon. Way too soon.
Hank was my first cousin and I have known him all my life. He was three months older then me and we were both turning 70 together. He made it to 70 just last month. But he won't be here for me to turn 70. Not fair!
We had a really good time coming up. His Mama "Boe Boe" as he called her and my Mama were sisters. I have lots of memories of our childhood and later I will cherish forever.
Zettie, my heartfelt sympathy goes out to you and your entire family. I know Hank and Cary and as well as all the grandchildren are all just as torn up as you are.
My thoughts and prayers are with you. I love you all.
Susan Watson Boyd

Susan Watson Boyd - January 21, 2019 at 05:29 PM