

Margaret "Maggie" Stroupe

August 9, 1974 - September 19, 2020

MARGARET ANNE STROUPE

Margaret Anne (Maggie) Stroupe, 46, passed away September 19, 2020 at her home in St. Augustine, FL. She was ready to go home and be in Christ's arms and she longed to see her beloved Mom and 'DearMa' (grandmother) again.

Maggie was born in Roanoke, VA and has lived in the St. Augustine area since 2007.

She especially enjoyed listening to music and had a life-long love of expressing herself through writing and poetry.

In recent years, she suffered from the long-term effects of an Arnold-Chairi Malformation.

Maggie was predeceased by her mother, Judith Anne Thompson.

She is survived by her husband, Donald E. Clark, and her daughter, Savannah B. James, both of St. Augustine. She is also survived by her sisters, Glenda Stinebaugh (Jay) of Franklin, VA and Amy Harrell of Pensacola, FL and many nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, and cousins.

The family will have a private celebration of Maggie's life at a later date.

“ Maggie I'm going to miss our talks we've been friends for over 30yrs with my baby brother introducing us we hit it off, and even though yall were no meant to be we were. I remember so many good times and you coming to see us Savannah was probably 2 when I met her beautiful little girl but of course she came from you and you loved her so much and kept her safe and raised her proudly. Then we kind of drifted apart but we still talked then when facetime came into play it was great it was like we were in the same room but miles apart. i will say again damn this covid-19 if it went for that I could have come to fla, yet I will see you again. RIP< Maggie Davyse >until then send me signs you will always be my #bffrideanddieforever #sisterfromanothermister #alwaysalways love you Lisa
