“ Dear Carol. Rita, Jimmy, Richy and family. My sincere sympathy to all for your loss. I have many happy memories growing up and visiting Aunt Marie in Emerson N, J. One that I will not forget is at Christmas .Our family must have fallen on hard times, Aunt Marie made sure that there was a gift for me, under the tree, Christmas morning because there were none at home in New York when I got home. Marie looked after Paul and I and we felt loved and safe I will miss her but I know, she is watching over me and over all of you too. Love Tony
